DORCHESTER PRIMARY SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

Welcome back everyone!

The first week has already flown by and all the children are very settled and already working hard.

Supergrounds
Project sponsored by RBS/NATWEST

Andy Murray

We have been asked to host a media promotion of the Supergrounds project. Andy and Jamie Murray, tennis professionals will be visiting the school on Friday 14th September from about 10 a.m. Jamie won the Wimbledon mixed doubles tennis championship this year. The children will be able to ask the brothers questions about their tennis careers.

You might see photos in the local paper - if you do NOT wish your child to appear in the newspaper please inform the office by Friday.

Jamie Murray

Congratulations to our new Prefects!

We are proud to announce our 12 newly appointed prefects:

Sian Ballard
Louis Broom
Emily Conibear
Beth Culver
Reece Deacon
Renee Gallant
Connor Hayes
Daniel Khan
Casie-Lea Oakes
Nicole O'Shea
Pierce Perry
Gareth Salmon

These pupils should be good role models for the rest of the school, set good examples of behaviour and attitude. I'm sure they will!

Year 6 assembly

The Year 6 pupils have been busy finding out how talented they are and we are looking forward to an assembly this Friday at 9 to show off their skills to parents. All parents of Year 6 children welcome in the hall to start promptly at 9.00 a.m. If parents need to bring young children please make sure they sit very quietly.

Building Works

Hopefully the extension of the four classes will start in the October half term but don't hold your breath!.....

Reception classes

The reception children are now in school. The teachers are wondering if anyone has any good condition dolls prams, dolls and dolls' clothes to give to the classes.

We are all looking forward to a great term!

With best wishes from,

Louise Austin
