Write a character description of Miss Trunchbull from Matilda.

WAGOLL

Miss Trunchbull, the terrifying headmistress, was a towering figure with broad, muscular shoulders and a scowl that could freeze anyone in their tracks. Her beady, piercing eyes searched for trouble, and her thick, calloused hands were always ready to punish. Dressed in a tight, olive-green uniform, she marched through the school like a soldier on a mission. With her booming voice echoing down the halls, she made sure every child trembled in fear. Her iron-hard heart had no room for kindness. Despite her fierce strength, her cruel, twisted mind was her most dangerous weapon.

Nobody dared to cross her path.
