

The Titanic Cut and Stick Sequencing

The Titanic Cut and Stick Sequencing

The Titanic Cut and Stick Sequencing

The captain calls for help over the radio.

twinkl.com

An iceberg is spotted. The ship tries to steer around it. The ship is hit.

twinkl.com

Water starts to fill the ship.

twinkl.com

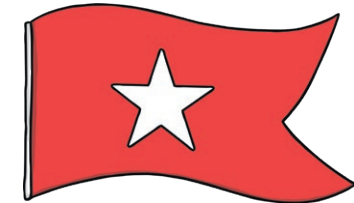

Passengers board the ship.
It sets sail at midday.

twinkl.com

The ship sails towards New York.

twinkl.com

White Star Line begins work on the Titanic.

twinkl.com

The Titanic Cut and Stick Sequencing

The Carpathia saves only 705 people. It makes its way to New York. twinkl.com

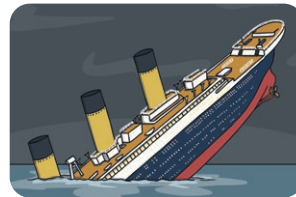

Distress rockets are fired. The first lifeboat is lowered. It is only half full. twinkl.com

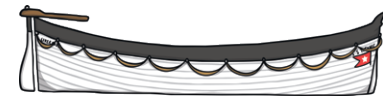

Women and children enter the lifeboats first. The Carpathia ship comes to help. twinkl.com

The lifeboats and lifejackets are uncovered. There are not enough for everyone. twinkl.com

The back of the ship is pulled high into the water before sinking. twinkl.com

The last lifeboat is lowered. People are still left on the ship. twinkl.com