Enquiry Question of the week

Each week we will post an Enquiry Question from the week's learning alongside the answer we would expect.

Ask your child the question and see how close your child is to answering the question fully.

If they are finding it tricky, break down the answer together and see if they can work on learning more at home.

How is Buddhism practised in Thailand and across South East Asia?

Most people in Southeast Asia are Buddhists.

They go to temples to pray, give food to monks, and celebrate big Buddhist holidays.

Boys sometimes become monks for a short time.

People often chant, meditate, give flowers and food to monks and statues of the Buddha.

Monks wear orange robes and live without possessions.
