RE EQ: How are the gospels of Luke and Mattew different in their telling of the Christmas story?

Both Matthew and Luke tell Christians about the birth of Jesus. They agree on some important details:Jesus was born to Mary; Mary was engaged to Joseph; Jesus was born in Bethlehem; Jesus was special and had an important role in God's plan.Matthew's gospel was written for Jews with the key focus of Joseph. Luke's gospel was written for non-Jewish people (Gentiles) with a focus on Mary. In Matthew wise men visit the new born where as in Luke the shepherds came to visit.
