

Peek at the Week

The Angel and The Dove

This week we learned the Easter Story. We retold the story of Jesus arriving in Jerusalem and made palm leaves which we waved as the people would have waved as he arrived. We learned about the last supper and we had bread and wine (Ribena) as we re-enacted the Last Supper. We heard the Story of the Angel and the Dove by Sophie Piper. It is a beautiful story about an angel and a dove playing and dancing with some children and a butterfly, while enjoying the morning sunshine. The atmosphere changes in the afternoon as a chill wind arrives and, in the background, we see the story of the Crucifixion unfold. The angel and the dove discuss being sad and friends departing and they see a woman crying. The following day the dove's eggs begin to hatch and the mood has lifted. We see Jesus in the garden with happy children and the woman. We learned that this was the first Easter.

We grew cress in our Easter Gardens and decorated them to represent the Garden of Gethsemane. As the blossom is growing on the trees, signalling the beginning of spring, we made blossom paintings for our Happy Easter message this year.

We are continuing to watch our tadpoles grow. They will probably be a lot bigger when we return after the holidays
