

Peek at next week- Year 2

Things to know for next week:

- ★ Next week on Wednesday 15th May, we will be going on our School Trip to the Tower of London. Please make sure that you have completed the Google Form about lunches, even if your child is having a packed lunch from home. Thank you to those who have volunteered to come, we have confirmed with parents who those people are. Please make sure you also bring your own lunch that day!
- ★ Writing Raffle - as part of our commitment to improving writing in Year 2, we are starting a Writing Raffle. Each week, one of the home learning 'dip and do's' will be a Writing Raffle challenge. If the children meet the conditions of the challenge, their name will be entered into the raffle, and the winner will get a prize at the end of the week. Please support your child in taking part in this challenge, to improve their writing. Thank you in advance for your support.
- ★ As we are on our school trip on Wednesday, reading books will be changed on Thursday next week.

Enquiry Question of the week

What makes a good friend?

Good friends treat us with kindness and respect and are people we trust. Friends are people who like and accept us for who we are and don't try to make us do things that we are uncomfortable with.

A summary of next week:

Spelling: Using the suffixes -ing on root words ending in e.

Reading: Retrieval, inference and vocabulary skills.

Writing: Write a newspaper, what features we can see, and how to write formally, in 3rd person.

Maths: Tables, tally charts and block diagrams.

Science: Are there any food chains happening in our allotment?

History: School trip to the Tower of London.

Art: Add fine details and evaluate our work based on the Great Fire of London.

PSHE: How can I resolve an argument without being unkind?

RE: Who is the Prophet Muhammad PBUH?

Computing: Testing games.

This half term:

Year 2 Home Learning - "Dip and Do"

You must:

- Read daily at home for at least 20 minutes and record this in the Reading Record. Records are checked on a Wednesday but please make sure the folder is in everyday so the children can access their login details.
- Learn the weekly spelling words which are sent home and assigned on Spelling Shed. These will be tested every Friday morning.
- Practise addition and subtraction skills on Numbots at least 3 times a week.

"Dip" into these tasks:

Gold	Writing Raffle! This week, use your skills of retelling to tell us about an important event that has happened to you. This could be something that has happened recently or something that happened a while ago. We will be looking to see that you have written at least 5 sentences. In each sentence, use at least one time adverb, for example, first, next, after that, next, etc. You must have capital letters and full stops in the right places. Any common expectation words you have used, must be spelled correctly. Good luck!
Silver	Next week, we will be learning about the Prophet Muhammad PBUH who is an important person for followers of Islam. Can you create a poster about an important person in your life and explain why they are so important?
Bronze	We have been describing movement and turns in Maths this week, can you create a treasure map and describe how to get from the start position to the treasure?

Spelling words to learn: hiking, shining, joking, hoping, smiling, surprising, loving, writing, coming, caring

They have access to tasks linked to this spelling pattern on Spelling Shed.

Don't forget to complete 16 Reading WOWs this year for your chance to be awarded the Platinum Reading Award. This could be a book review, a picture of your favourite character, a letter to the author, a poem based on the book, a comic strip, a painting, a shoe box diorama...anything related to the book which your teacher (or anyone else who might see it) would say WOW to.
